This collection is the third edition of reports already presented at the annual seminar Doctoral Readings within the Doctoral program “Art History and Visual Studies” at the New Bulgarian University. It gathers papers predominantly given by graduate students from the Department of History of Culture, but currently the seminar has begun to assert itself as a forum for discussion and scientific exchange for a wider circle of young researchers, whose themes are involved with problems of the visual.